Practice Overview

Peter was called to the Bar by Lincoln's Inn in 2012 and became a tenant at 30 Park Place in 2015 following successful completion of pupillage under the supervision of Tracey Lloyd-Nesling and Max Davies.

Peter has a successful and busy practice specialising in Serious Crime and Regulatory matters. Peter's talent has been recognised in his instruction as Junior Counsel alone and also as Leading Junior Counsel in the most serious cases. Peter is regularly instructed as Junior counsel being led by King's Counsel, in significant cases including those of murder, manslaughter, attempt murder, complex fraud, drugs conspiracies, serious sexual offences and inquests. He also represents clients at hearings before various regulatory bodies. He has received a Certificate of Commendation from the Home Office and the National Crime Agency for his significant contribution as Junior counsel in Operation Queen, a complex multi handed immigration fraud. He has quickly risen to the highest level on the Advocate Panel.

Peter is appreciated for his diligence, dedication and judgment. His determination, thorough preparation and commitment to his cases has been recognised by those instructing him and he seeks to provide an approachable and professional style, tackling issues head on and dealing with difficulties as they arise.

During his pupillage, Peter gained valuable and in depth experience across all Chambers' practice areas.

Peter was educated in Cardiff and Halesowen in the West Midlands before returning to study Law at Cardiff University. He remained in Cardiff for the Bar Professional Training Course where he obtained the highest grade of 'Outstanding' and received a number of awards for his performance. Prior to starting pupillage Peter obtained a distinction in the LLM in Legal Practice for research into the law of evidence, and he worked at Hugh James Solicitors in the Nursing Care Department, gaining valuable experience assisting and speaking for clients at NHS Review Panels. Peter then went on to work for the international development charity Christian Aid as the Wales Regional and Legacies Coordinator, developing his advocacy and speaking at numerous campaigning and fundraising events.

Outside of work Peter enjoys music, running, playing hockey and attending his Church. He is also a committed Welsh language learner.
